Back from the World Youth Day in Brazil. So many impressions (and photos) to share don't know where to start. This is a video taken by the local television of the sending out mass in Caico. Advertising for special offers relating to the celebration days of holy Anna included. For conclusion you get the latest news about road work progresses. So you can get an idea of how it looks like where i spent my first week in Brazil. Greetings to my host family and it's relatives and friends!
